The day we went to the sea mothers in Madras were mining the Marina for missing children. Thatch flew in the sky, prisoners ran free, houses danced like danger in the wind. I saw a woman hold the tattered edge of the world in her hand, look past the temple which was still standing, as she was — miraculously whole in the debris of gaudy South Indian sun.

Went the Day Well? is a 1942 British war film adapted from a story by Graham Greene and directed by Alberto Cavalcanti. It was produced by Michael Balcon of Ealing Studios and served as unofficial propaganda for the war effort. It tells of how an English village is taken over by German paratroopers. It reflects the greatest potential nightmare of many Britons of the time, although the threat of ...
